64th YEAR

NUMBER 19,772.

RICHMOND, VA., FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1914. -TWELVE PAGES

TO-DAY'S CLOUDY

PRICE. 2 CENTS

REBELS TAKE CITY OF GUADALAJARA

the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received with the utmost elation at Constitu-tionalist headquarters, where it was Federals had been completly routed, and that he was in control of the en-tire city, including the Federal pal-ace. Five thousands Federals had been taken prisoners, according to Obregon's report, and the retreat towards Mexico City of those who escaped had been cut off by troops of the command tend over fifty-five miles, with General Blanco in command of Obregon's ad-vance guard.

sleged. After a disastrous conflict on Tuesday in which the Federals lost ten resorted to, the troopers arms of troop trains and more than 600 pristroop trains and more than 600 prisoners, they retreated, leaving an unobstructed road to the second largest city of Mexico, which offered little resistance when the Constitutionalists

FORECLOSURE ASKED FOR Company Against Prince System.

OBREGON REPORTS ON

TAKING GUADALAJARA

Douglas, Ariz, July 9.—Telegraphing from the Governor's palace in the city of Guadalajara, General Alvare Obregon to-day informed F. S. Elfas, border representative of the Constitutionalists, that he had captured the city on Wednesday morning and routed 12,909 Federals commanded by General Miel, Federal Governor of the State of Jalisco.

Agailust Priaco System.

St. Louis, July 9.—Foreclosure of a mortgage of $65,606,000 on the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad was asked in the United States District Court here to-day by the Guaranty Trust Company, of New York. The Frisco now is in the hands of return of the State of Jalisco.

The petition asks that the mortgage be declared a valid lien against the roperty which it covers, which includes a large part of the Frisco system.

Jalisco.
In a flerce battle extending over a zone of eighty miles, the Federal army was cut to pieces by Obregon's force of less than 10,000 men. Five thouwas cut to pleace by Oregon's seeles of refunding a per cent bonds to please to please to the committee's request an about to question about the committee's request an about to questions about the committee's request on the bonds is add, along with all the artillery and annumitation with eartillery and annumitation with Mexico City. He tore up the railroad line and prevented the flower on Condition of Crops by Department of Agriculture.

BETTER THAN AVERAGE

BETTER Leave and prevented the flow of the training to the committee's request and prevented and the end of the second of the secon graphed you from the Governor's palace in this city. The column sent out by the Federals to meet us was disastrously destroyed. General Blancowas sent to cut off all communication with Mexico City. The losses of the Federals I am unable to compute as yet. The battle covered a distance of over 100 kilometres, and the dead are scattered all over this territory.

"Those who escaped are in flight or dispersed entirely. For three days we fought with more than 12,000 of the commy. Have virtually captured all artillery and ammunition held by enemy and 5,000 prisoners. Others coming all time and surrendering. Very few of

THE MERCHANT AND HIS SERVICE TO THE PUBLIC.

they render, or fall to render, to the

If a merchant locked his front door, pulled down the curtains and failed to inform his customers as to the contents of his store, his goods would remain unsold on the shelves. But he does not do that. He puts out a sign to make it known that he has a certain line of merchandise for sale. He does not, however, tell the public specifically what he has in stock, and the public only finds out because buyers are always opportunity seekers. The public not only needs, but is willing to buy from the merchant who has what it wants.

Merely as a matter of service to his fellow-men, every merchant ought to tell his neighbor what he has in his store, and the best way to do that is by ADVERTISING.

THE TIMES-DISPATCH enters the things they need.

FOR CLOSER CO-OPERATION

State Bank Commissioners Confer With Federal Officials.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, July 9.—For the pur-ose of establishing closer co-opera Obregon Reports Federals Completely Routed and He Is in Entire Control.

MORE THAN 5,000 PRISONERS

Mews Regarded as Preliminary to Occupation of Mexico City Itself.

Saltillo, Mex., July 9.—General Carranza was officially advised late today of the fall of Guadalajara before the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received the Constitutionalist forces at noon Wednesday. The news was received the different States.

tent with the banking departments of the different States.

The discussion was participated in by the delegates generally, and assurances were given on all sides looking tionalist headquarters, where it was been considered as preliminary to the occupation of Mexico City itself.

General Alvaro Obregon, Constitutionalist commander, in his dispatch to General Carranza, reported that the State.

MAY CIRCUMVENT ORDER

Militiamen Can Travel Through South Carolina as Individuals, Unarmed.

Washington, July 9 .- The refusal of been cut off by troops of the command of General Blanco, detoured from lina and Georgia militia troops to pass through South Carolina en route to the military encampment at Augusta, Ga., has not been the basis of representations to the War Department, and in the original of officials will not be.

The Federals were reported seatthe opinion of officials will not be.
Although the State, troops will go to the encampment on invitation of the War Department, and in the opinion of officials will not be.
Although the State, troops will go to the encampment on invitation of the War Department, they have no but no figures of losses on either side were available.
The line of combating the department had no authority the department had no authority to order their transportation through

Blanco in command of Oblegons are vance guard.

General Obregon personally led the main attack.

For several days the Constitutionalists hammered the Guadalajara garrison, which came out from its defenses in the effort to scatter the befores in the effort to scatter the befores in the effort to scatter the besideged. After a disastrous conflict on Tuesday in which the Federals lost ten a series of refunding 4 per cent bonds issued in. 1991. The petition says that the accrued interest on the bonds is $1,372,000.

and 5,000 prisoners. Others coming all state's export, is ready to testify as time and surrendering. Very few of to the analysis, he has been making our men are wounded or killed. No of certain exhibits taken by the State, officers. Enthusiasm reigns in the the corner will hear his testimony. (Continued On Tenth Page.)

It was learned to-night that Mrs. Helen M. Angle is now very desirious of telling her story to Coroner Phelan in public, and that she is urging her father to get her counsel to consent

PRIVATE SALE ORDERED

Claffit Company to Dispose of Large

Quantity of Merchandise.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, July 9.—Under general order of the court, the temporary receivers for the H. B. Classin Company will sell on the usual terms, at private sale next Monday, a large quantity of general merchandise to produce a radical reduction of stock.

The managers believe that the sale The managers believe that the saie will stimulate business, and will par-ticularly benefit the retailers of the country, perhaps setting the pace for a better demand for textile fabrics, which has been generally hoped for.

WILL RETURN TO WORK

Striking Westinghouse Employes to Accept Company's Terms, [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pittsburgh, Pa., July 9.—The strik-ng employes of the Westinghouse works here, several thousand in num best homes in Richmond and Virginia.

And has a clean, esger clientele. Its readers are always ready to take adsequence to the sight of three carloads of strike vantage of the opportunity to buy the breakers, who had come to take their

COMMITTEE VOTES UNITED FACTIONS TO REJECT JONES

of Fight to Have Senate Confirm!

REPORT EARLY NEXT WEEK TWO CONVENTIONS MERGE

burg Nomination Is Postponed Indefinitely.

Washington, July 9.—The adminis-tration met defeat to-day in the first stage of its fight to have the Senate confirm the nominations of Thomas D. Federal Reserve Board. The Banking and Currency Committee voted 7 to 4 ginia District in Congress. The nomi-and Currency Committee voted 7 to 4 to report unfavorably the nomination of Mr. Jones, and postponed indefinitely further consideration of the nomination of Mr. Warburg.

The Jones report will be submitted early next week, and debate over his confirmation will be resumed on the floor of the Senate in executive session. The committee will take no further action on the Warburg appointment, unless the New York banker decides to accept the committee's invitation to submit to questioning. The next move, according to committee members, must come from Mr. Warburg.

The committee's action was taken.

The committee's action was taken.

in the face of the President's deter-mined effort to have the appointments approved. In his conference with newspaper men to-day, the President made it clear he would keep up the fight. LEWIS IS CONDUCTING

FIGHT FOR CONFIRMATION.
Senator Lewis, of Illinois, is conducting the fight for Jones's confirmator to abandon its work on antitrust on this nomination; while Senators Hitchcock and Reed, Democrats, and Bristow, Nelson, Crawford, Weeks and McLean, Republicans, voted for an un-favorable report. There was little favorable report. There was little criticism of Mr. Jones other than that he was a director of the harvester ate committee.

That the committee is fully as determined in its stand as is the President in the committee dent in his was made manifest to-day, when Senator Hitchcock, acting chairman of the committee, declared that that body is united in the determination. tion not to consider Mr. Warburg's nomination until the New Yorker shall appear before the committee and give it the information it desires.

APPARENT DEADLOCK

IN CASE OF WARBURG As the President insists that the

IN UPHOLDING NOMINEE The President to-day received a num-er of telegrams and letters congratulating him on his statement yesterday as to Warburg, and assuring hin that his strong words would go fa that his strong words would go far toward a better feeling and spirit in the ranks of business throughout the country A letter from the Chicago delegation of business men received yesterday by the President, indorsing Mr. Wilson's statement in support of Mr. Warburg and Mr. Jones, was made public at the white House.

"No more hopeful, help, finer words ever have come from the White House, and we believe they will meet with the nation's hearty approval," said the letter.

"The nomination of Mr. Warburg will stay just where it is before the Senate stay into the Senate was the Senate with the matter of the Senate stay just where it is before the Senate stay just where it is before the Senate was the Senate where the Senate was the Senate w stay just where it is, before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, un-til doomsday if he continues to refuse to come before the committee and give it information to which it is entitled." said a prominent member of the com-mittee to-day, who refused to allow himself to be quoted.

The committee was informed of the statement given out at the White House to the effect that Mr. Warburg (Continued on Third Page.)

THE WAY TO BALTIMORE. York River, Chesapeake Bay, Delightful all. $2.50 one way, $4.50 round trip.

NOMINATE SLEMP

Administration Loses First Stage Republicans and Progressives Get Together in Love Feast at Bristol.

Further Consideration of War- Platform Adopted, Which Denounces Everything Democratic, State and National.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., July 9.—In the largest and most enthusiastic political convention held here in recent years, the Chicago, and Paul M. War-New York, as members of the Il Reserve Board. The Banking com Slemp to represent the Ninth Virman, but in a storm of confusion in the afternoon session, a majority of the Progressives, including Mr. Wit-ten, their permanent chairman, left ten, their permanent chairman, left the City Hall and Joined the Republican convention, and Mr. Witten, Senator J. N. Harman, Rev. J. B. Craft and others, of the Progressive wing, addressed the Republican convention, and related why they had left the Progressive meeting. Following these species, which precipitated a general love feast which precipitated a general love feast among the Progressives and Republi-cans present, Mr. Slemp was placed in nomination by former Stite Senator J. C. Noel, of Lee County, and after the nomination had been seconded by all counties, upon motion of L. P. Sum-ners, of Washington County, Mr. Slemp was unanimously vared the nom-lant. This was followed by the popular Opposition to Jones was based on the fact that he is a director of the International Harvester Company, now being sued under the Sherman antitrust act. Sentors Lee, of Maryland; Holls, Pomerene, and Shafroth, all Democrats, voted for favorable report.

TO PRESERVE IDENTITY While this was in progress, the few Progressives who remained in sepa-rate session in the City Hall nomi-nated J. L. Rose, of Washington Counne was a director of the harvester company.

OBJECTION TO WARBURG
FOR REFUSAL TO APPEAR
Objection to Mr. Warburg so far is based on the fact that he has refused the committee's request to appear and submit to questions about his business connections. Committee members hold that makes.

esced in the requests of the commit-tee. And the President, it was stated, was-equally determined that his nomi-nee should be confirmed without the proposed inquisition before the Sen-ate committee. toot, but for the sake of the State at

David F. Bailey, of Bristol, presided

WILSON ADMINISTRATION

Speeches assailing the Wilson administration, and pleading for a return of the Republican tariff and industrial policy, were made by Chairman D. F. Bailey, of Bristol; Colonel James S. Browning Processing Street Processing Street Str nomination shall be confirmed with-out this action on the part of War-burg, it is apparent that a deadlock has arisen, and that a clash between the President and the Senate commit-tee is imminent.

Browning. of Roanoke, and Tom J. Munsey, of Bland. Mr. Browning as-sailed in particular the Wilson policy with reference to the tariff, pointing out what, as he viewed it, the new tariff had done for our erstwhile have Throughout the world in every line of endeavor men are coming to recognize the fundamental value of service. The ministers preach of the "Brotherhood of Man"—which is service—"The ministers preach of the "Brotherhood of Man"—which is service—"The dollar not contemplates service—doing all you can for your fellow-man. Many merchants feel that their obligation to the public ends when they invest their money in merchandise, put it on their shelves and open a store. As a matter of fact, they prosper or fall just in the ratio of the services and and the Senate committee to imminent.

President Wilson received a televal to the Wilson received the service as the president shown, but it is understood the New York banker is perfectly willing for the committee to make any and all investigations of his record it wants, but he does not feel that the committee has any right to put him through "the third degree" for political purposes. He has bondage. He is seeking an engage, he is seeking an engage, he is seeking an engage in the shelves and open a store. As a matter of fact, they prosper or fall just in the ratio of the service that they render, or fall to render, to the Pendleton, Chairman Bailey appointed a committee to go to the City Hall and extend an invitation to such Progressives as remained in session in separate convention to join the Re-publicans in the opera-house convention in making a nomination. While most of the Progressives had already responded to the sentiment and occu-pied seats in the Republican conven-tion, a few held out and insisted on a separate and distinct organization.

Colonel J. S. Browning, E. H. Witten,
Rev. J. B. Craft, Senator J. N. Harman and others who have been loyal to Progressive sentiment, and who supported Roosevelt two years ago, urged all Progressives to lay aside sentiment and come into the get-together love feat Progressives to lay aside sentiment and come into the get-together love feast, come into the get-together love feast, and stand out as one party against the common enemy. Rev. Mr. Craft, who common enemy. Rev. Mr. Craft, who is pastor of the Baptist Church at Big Stone Gap, said that he always watched and saw what the Democrats were going to do, then did the opposite, and he insisted the he insisted that there was only one course open to the Republicans and Progressives, and that was to put up a solid front against Democracy.

SLEMP RIBBON BADGES ARE SEEN EVERYWHERE Was Well-Known Republican and

RENOMINATED FOR CONGRESS

WHILE HOLDING BABY SHE MURDERS HUSBAND

She Fired Fatal Shot, and Not Highwayman.

TELLS HER STORY TO POLICE MYSTERY

Her Life Unbearable Because of Woman, in Epistle to Mother at At-False Accusations, She Conceals Pistol and Uses It When They Are Driving to Church.

Raleigh, N. C., July 9 .- Mrs. Joseph Johnson, of Martin County, who was arrested on Tuesday on the charge of killing her husband last Saturday night while the two and their baby

"Saturday afternoon I looked into one of the drawers of his bureau and found a pistol there. Later he said he was going to take me to church, and told me to get ready. I wrapped the pistol up in the shawl which was around my baby. As soon as we left home he started talking about me. I stood it mith I beauty the property of the started talking about me. I stood it until I thought had rather stood it until I thought A had rather be dead than alive like I was doing. My husband was slightly stoop-shouldered, and was leaning forward in the buggy. I held my baby in my left arm, and unwrapped the pistol with my right hand, held it close to the side of his head and pulled the trigger. He fell to the road, and the horse started running, it being stopped at the church, where I stated that some one had shot my husband."

In the course of her confession, Mrs.
Johnson said she had parted from her husband three times and gone to live with her mother. After each separawith her mother. After each separa-tion, she said, her husband came to her and persuaded her to go back with him. "He was very suspicious," she said, "and constantly accused me of being too familiar with other men, with his brother, Archie Johnson, in particular, who for some time lived in the same house with us. Several times lately he has said that he would kill me the first time he saw me with any man other than bimself. I was afraid he would carry this threat-into execution. Mrs. Johnson stated in her confession that her husband's charges of fidelity were baseless.

JOHN D. ENCOURAGES THRIFT

A Penny to Spend and a Mickel to

"A Penny to Spend and a Nickel to Save" He Gives Children.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Tarrytown, N. Y., July 9.—John D.
Rockefeller, who was seventy-five years old yesterday, is still trying to encourage thrift among the younger and severy effort to locate his was making every effort to locate his and in the office.

"A Penny to Spend and a Nickel to the locate of the little of the killing of one of the daughters.

In a telegram late to-day to his mother, Marshall Nelms said that he was making every effort to locate his and in the office.

"As for Bardes, his story stands up to-day. During Mr. Rockefeller's from her husband several months ago walks around the estate he often visits the new stable. Here the children of the employes line up and tip their hats, saying, "How do you do, LATTLE CREDENCE ler's reply to a school-teacher who asked him how to accumulate a for-"Save your pennies," he replied. When a friend asked him about he said: "Oh, well, you know children have to have candy." It puzzles the men on the estate to know he Rockefeller carries so many and pennies in his vest pocket. the estate to know how Mr.

FRED A. BUSSE DEAD

ARE SEEN EVERYWHERE
Indicative of the sentiment that had been manifest since the arrival here of the first of the delegates, a majority of those in the convention hall wore ribbon badges inscribed: "I am for Slemp," "Me, too," "All for Slemp," (Continued on Third Page.)

Was Well-Known Republican and Af anta police the Former Mayor of Chicago, III., July 9.—Fred A. Busse, had killed Beatr of the well-known Republican, and was in the many years the well-known Republican. The property of the first of the delegates, a majority of the graph of the first of the delegates, a majority of the graph of th

FAILS TO REVEAL TRACE OF ALLEGED MURDER

Mrs. Joseph Johnson Confesses That Police Investigation Into Contents of Letter Telling of Crime Is Without Result.

SURROUNDS

linta, Declares She Has Killed Sister, and Is Preparing to Slay Brother.

Atlanta, Ga., July 9 .- Mystery to night still surrounds the sending of trict attorney's testimony broken. He a letter here from San Francisco, signed with the name of Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis, which said that she had the sister in New Orleans and the sister in New ever, and that her daughter had been forced by other persons, for some unknown reason, to send the letter.

Mrs. Dennis left here on June 13 for San Antonio, Texas. She stopped in New Orleans, and was joined there on June 13 by her sister, Beatrice Nelms, who had not been able to leave here.

June 13 by her sister. Beatrice Nelms, who had not been able to leave here at the time Mrs. Dennis left. On the following day, it was learned here tonight. Mrs. Dennis cashed a draft for $1,500 at a New Orleans bank.

MONEY FOR FINALLY

CLOSING INVESTMENTS.

ments Mrs. Dennis had ments Mrs. Dennis had been making in Mexico. A telegram received from the two daughters at New Orleans on June 14 said they were leaving for Houston Terrator to the two daughters at New Orleans on June 14 said they were leaving for pressed at all. Bardes, it is said, did Houston, Texas, on their journey to San Antonio to close up the invest-

A week later Mrs. Nelms received an-A week later Mrs. Nelms received another telegram from Houston, signed "E. and B.," which stated that they planned to stay in Houston a few days longer. Mrs. Nelms explained that the initials stood for "Eloise and Beatrice," her daughters' Christian names. The last telegram received from the two young women was on June 28. It was dated in New Orleans and signed by both. It read:

"Back in New Orleans. Am going farther West."

No further information as to the

No further information as to the whereabouts of the two young women was received until Mrs. Nelms received the letter on Tuesday which was postmarked San Francisco, and which purported to tell of the killing of one of the daughters.

Mrs. Dennis was granted a divorce shall Nelms, the brother prepared to-night to flee to his mother in Atlanta, Ga. Although San Francisco authori-ties gave little credence to the tele-gram received last night from At-death. Mrs. Dennis's mother told the written from San Francisco that she had killed Beatrice in New Orleans, and then was in San Francisco, seeking her brother.

Neims was much aging to the seek of the stood on th lanta telegram. "I wired my mother last night I was not going home," said

MUCH OF EVIDENCE NOT CONVINCING

County Officials Are Seeking to Strengthen Case Against Mrs. Carman.

BURNS IN DIRECT CHARGE

Woman's Lawyer Expects So to Weaken Testimony That Grand Jury Will Not Indict.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Freeport, N. Y., July 9 .- For the first time since Mrs. Lulu Duryea Balley. of Hempstead, was shot to death in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman on Merrick Road, Freeport, on the night of June 30, the Carman house faded into insignificance to-day.

With Mrs. Plorence Conklin Carman in the Mineola jall, charged with the murder of the woman whom District Attorney Smith wishes to establish as Mrs. Carman's rival for the affections of Dr. Carman, the Nassau County officials set un to fly more definitely the ficials set up to fix more definitely the facts and strengthen the evidence on which they hope to bring Mrs. Carman to trial.

With this in mind and confessing they could not hope to convict Mrs. Carman of murder on the admittedly vulnerable evidence now in their possession, the county officials over the main investigation to-night to William J. Burns.

The first thing that Burns did was to take one of his operatives to Mincella There the properties between to take one of his operatives to Min-cola. There the operative—Jack Sloan—was admitted to the cell in which Elwood Bardes is confined. Bardes is held because he could not furnish the $2,000 bail demanded to-day. He is held as a material witness, REFUSES TO TALK

AFTER LONG INTERVIEW AFTER LONG INTERVIEW
Sloan spent three hours with Bardes,
He left the jail refusing to talk,
Burns himself motored to Freeport, where, at the Carman house, he began questioning Celia Coleman, the colored servant. District Attorney Smith declared that the next step would be to draw from the colored woman's rates drag from the colored woman's reluc-tant lips every detail that she knows pertaining to the murder of Mrs. Bailey. He declared that she has re-vealed but an infinitesimal part of her knowledge. Burns is instructed to use every strategy to work from her the story she is thought to be withhold-ing.

ing.
The authorities declare they know that they must reinforce much of the testimony at the inquest.

It was decided that Mrs. Carman's ase would be put up to the jury on Tuesday, after Justice of the Peace Norton had conducted the examination of Mrs. Carman's lawyer hopes in the examination to have much of the district attorney's testimony braken. He

PART OF TESTIMONY Levy has procured from George Golder an affidavit in which he declares he would not know Mrs. Carman "if he fell over her." To-day Golder told a reporter that his testimny was incorrect. He declared that he did not see Mrs. Powell in the house. He saw her on the porch. He says that he saw a woman in the hallway, but he did not know her to be Mrs. Carman y was in San Francisco when the lefter ter received by her mother, Mrs. John I looked into his bureau and Later he said me to church, ter. She expressed the belief it had not been written voluntarily, howard awl which was ever, and that her daughter had been precipitated the arrest of Mrs. Carman. To-day came forward a Miss Florage.

MONEY FOR FINALLY
CLOSING INVESTMENTS.

It was explained to-night by Mrs.
Nelms that the money was for purpose of finally closing up some investto not read the papers. He was on his st-way to a doctor's house, not neces-sarily Dr. Carman, the district atwell. I believe he is telling the truth."

Mrs. Carman broke down to-day.

The jail physician prescribed a nerve sedative, and by the time her husband arrived to assist the physician

PROBLEM OF COURSE Again the course taken by the bullet which ended Mrs. Bailey's life brings about a problem which will, if Mrs. Carman is ever brought to trial, be one of the points made.

The bullet struck the murdered woman high in the back. It was taken out of her breast by Engels at a paint.

murder her brother, they searched every rooming-house and hotel in the city for the woman.

A telegram received to-day from James W. Reynolds, chief of police of New Orleans, denied that Mrs. Dennis had killed her sister. Centrice, in New Orleans, stating that the records of the New Orleans coroner showed no such death.

other temporary platform to last night I was not going home," said mount the elevation, break the win-Nelms, "but I have changed my mind." dow, fire downward, and get herself